

Preparation (20 points)

- Demonstrates thorough research on the assigned country/topic
- Has a clear understanding of the position and policies of the assigned country
- Arrives fully prepared with all necessary materials, including notes, position papers*, and relevant documents

*Position papers are mandatory for awards

Participation in Sessions (30 points)

- Actively contributes to the discussion during committee sessions
- Uses appropriate diplomatic language and shows respect for other delegates and their positions
- Engages in productive debate and offers constructive solutions to problems

Leadership (20 points)

- Takes a leadership role in the committee when appropriate
- Works well with other delegates and encourages cooperation and collaboration
- Provides clear guidance and direction to the committee

Diplomacy (20 points)

- Builds alliances with other delegates when appropriate
- Negotiates effectively to achieve the best outcome for their country and the committee
- Demonstrates a thorough understanding of the rules of procedure and uses them to advance their country's interests

Professionalism (10 points)

- Demonstrates punctuality and attendance throughout the conference
- Dresses appropriately for the conference
- Shows respect for conference organizers, other delegates, and staff

Total possible points: 100